

District of Lantzville
Economic Development Strategic Plan and Community Branding Select Committee
Meeting Schedule

The Economic Development Strategic Plan and Community Branding Select Committee meets regularly on the first Tuesday of the month, resulting in the following meeting schedule. Other meetings may be scheduled as required during the term commencing in early November 2017 and ending in March 2018 or once the economic development strategic plan and community brand has been adopted by Council.

The recommendations of the Committee, in the form of a staff report/recommendation format, are considered by Council at a subsequent Council meeting. The District of Lantzville issued an Request for Proposals to select a consultant with experience in developing comprehensive economic development strategies and community branding. The Committee only considers matters pertaining to the approved consultant's Scope of Work or matters referred to it by Council and the CAO. The Committee is an advisory body to Council that provides input and feedback to the consultant during the economic development strategic planning and community branding process
